There are 2 alternative minimum financial thresholds, and this Order specifies the minimum threshold amount for the purpose of 1 of them (the other is provided for under Article 5(3) of the MCIT Law).

The minimum threshold amount is £100,000.

Social Security (Parental Benefit) (Jersey) Amendment Order 2024.

Minister for Social Security.

This Order amends the Social Security (Parental Benefit) (Jersey) Order 2020 (the “principal Order”) because of the insertion of new Article 22B (additional period for which parental allowance is payable – child requiring urgent medical care) into the Social Security (Jersey) Law 1974 (the “Law”) by the Social Security Law (Parental Allowance and Death Grant) (Jersey) Amendment Regulations 2024 (the “Amendment Regulations”).

Article 1 states that this Order amends the principal Order.

Article 2 makes some minor amendments consequential on the amendment of Article 22 (entitlement to parental allowance) and the insertion of Article 22A (period for which parental allowance is payable to a parent) into the Law by the Amendment Regulations.

Article 3 inserts new Article 7A, the effect of which is to trigger the payment of additional weeks of parental allowance (calculated in accordance with Article 22B of the Law) if the child of a parent entitled to that allowance requires, in the first 28 days of life, urgent medical care in hospital for a period of 7 or more days.

Article 4 makes amendments to reflect the language used in Article 22C of the Law about the payment of the parental allowance for weeks specified by 2 nominated parents entitled to the allowance. The amendments also provide that, in the case of 2 parents, each parent's entitlement to the parental allowance is extended for an additional number of weeks if Article 22B of the Law applies, and the total period of 32 weeks for which the allowance is payable is also extended if Article 22B of the Law applies. An amendment is also made to clarify that a parental allowance is still payable in respect of a specified week in which a child is being looked after by the Minister for Children and Families, or in which a child has died.

Article 5 is a renumbering amendment.

Article 6 removes a spent provision.

Article 7 gives the title by which this Order may be cited and for it to come into force immediately after the commencement of the Amendment Regulations.
