Explanatory Note

These Regulations amend further the Costs in Criminal Cases (Witnesses' Allowances) (Jersey) Regulations 1973. The purpose of the amendments is to increase allowances payable out of public funds to persons attending at court (that is, the Royal Court, the Court of Appeal or the Magistrate's Court) to give evidence in criminal cases.

The allowances are paid under the following headings -

Regulation 2 - professional witness;

Regulation 4 - loss allowance to witness who is neither a professional witness nor an expert witness;

Regulation 5 - subsistence allowance to witness who is neither a professional witness nor an expert witness;

Regulation 6 - allowance for witness obliged to be away from home overnight;

Regulation 8(3) - allowance for hire of vehicle within the Island where public transport not available.

The allowances were last increased in 1993.
