STATES GREFFE

REPORT

This is the second of 2 Appointed Day Acts which will bring the Criminal Procedure \(Bail\) \(Jersey\) Law 2017 (“Bail Law”) into force, together with the necessary changes to the Police Procedures and Criminal Evidence \(Jersey\) Law 2003 (“PPCE”) to allow the Bail scheme to function.

This Act would bring the as yet un-commenced provisions of Part 5 and Article 108 of the Police Procedures and Criminal Evidence (Jersey) Law 2003 into force. Those provisions are amended by Schedule 2 to the Bail Law. It will take effect immediately after the Bail Law comes into force (7 days after the first Act is adopted by the States).

The relevant provisions of the PPCE are concerned with the arrangements for the bail and detention of suspects and defendants.

Financial and manpower implications

There are no additional financial or manpower implications for the Government of Jersey arising from the adoption of this draft Appointed Day Act. The necessary training and other activities are being provided by the various Departments as part of their normal operations, and the current arrangements for custody and detention in Jersey are based on best practice in the UK, so significant retraining will not be required.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Act, if passed by the States, would bring the un-commenced provisions of Part 5 (bail and detention) and Article 108 (extended remand in customs custody of suspected drug offender) of the Police Procedures and Criminal Evidence (Jersey) Law 2003, as amended by Schedule 2 to the Criminal Procedure (Bail) (Jersey) Law 2017 (“Bail Law”), into force immediately following the coming into force of the Bail Law. The Bail Law is expected to come into force 7 days after the passing of the Criminal Procedure (Bail) (Jersey) Law 2017 (Appointed Day) Act 201-.
